RIGOROUS PROCESS

Elite interpreter candidates must meet the company's minimum requirement to be considered: two years of confirmed professional interpreting experience and 60 hours of professional interpreting training.

Elite interpreters have an average of 4+ years of interpreting experience prior to joining the Elite team, and 90% of Elite interpreters are native speakers of the target language.

After meeting the minimum standards for consideration, interpreter candidates must pass tests for fluency in spoken language, professional interpretation, and medical terminology before moving on to required coursework.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

At Elite Language Services we understand that the customer experience is the most important element for a successful interpretation.

During and at the end of each interpretation session, the quality control team is given the ability to constantly monitor, thus avoiding problems during the service.
